Thieu Resigns As S. Viet President

SAIGON (AP) — With tears in his eyes, President Nguyen Van Thieu resigned tonight in an eleventh-hour bid for a settlement with Communist-led forces who have driven almost to the gates of Saigon. Thieu bitterly accused the United States of moves that he said "led the South Vietnamese people to death."

The Viet Cong had demanded Thieu's ouster as a first step toward talks. But some U.S. experts say that fighting in South Vietnam so favors the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong, who have taken three-quarters of the country, it is doubtful they would be willing to negotiate even with Thieu gone.

Meanwhile, in Paris, the Viet Cong called for total U.S. withdrawal from South Vietnam and the establishment of a "national concord" regime in Saigon.

Although the Viet Cong had repeatedly demanded Thieu's ouster, there was no indication it is doubtful they would be willing to negotiate even with Thieu gone.

Despite Thieu's decision to resign, some U.S. experts say that fighting in South Vietnam so favors the Communist-led forces that it is doubtful they would be willing to negotiate even with Thieu gone.

Thieu said South Vietnam could not win militarily and blamed the United States for its failure, saying Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger was unable to perceive that the 1973 Paris agreement "led the South Vietnamese people to death."

Thieu himself declared, "There will be more challenges and fierce fighting in the near future."

Thieu, 52, named Vice President Tran Van Huong, 71, to succeed him and told the nation in a 90-minute television address that the new government "shall take its briefcase to the negotiating table." But there was speculation that Huong, who is in poor health and virtually blind, would resign along with the entire Cabinet and that 61-year-old Tran Van Lam, the president of the Senate, would become president.

Huong, in a brief address that followed Thieu's 90-minute speech, called on the South Vietnamese people to unite "because we will die if we do otherwise. If we do not help ourselves, then our hope for the assistance of others is hopeless."

Thieu stepped down as 10 Communist-led divisions threatened Saigon. Radio contact was lost with government forces under heavy attack at Xuan Loc, the gateway to the capital 40 miles east of Saigon, and still another province on the coast 35 miles farther east apparently was about to fall.

In his televised address, Thieu said, "I told President Nixon and the U.S. Congress that I did not demand an indefinite assistance but only assistance for five years so we can develop our economy."

"I said I was like a newly recovered patient and if I am given enough medicines soon, I will be strong enough. But later the internal affairs of the U.S. prevented the Republic of Vietnam from getting sufficient assistance."

"While the assistance is insufficient and the 300,000 North Vietnamese still in South Vietnam continue to receive tanks and artillery pieces from the Soviet Union and Red China, repair their airfields and establish more infantry divisions, South Vietnam stands under a defensive position, unable to do much, unable to bomb North Vietnam because of the lack of military aid."

"We could not back up our defense lines because we did not have enough helicopters, ammunition, weapons, and we had to retreat, and we were blamed for not being capable of defending the land."

Murray was the second stop in a full day of activities for Kentucky Gov. Julian Carroll Saturday.

Carroll Refuses To Support MSU For Vet School

By DAVID HILL
Murray Ledger & Times Staff Writer

Governor Julian Carroll refused Saturday to publicly commit himself to supporting the location of a school of veterinary medicine at Murray State University.

Speaking at a political luncheon here Saturday, Carroll said in an interview following the gathering that the location of a vet school is a legislative question, and not an executive one. Pressed about inside support from the governor's office for the location of the school, Carroll said "I am not the kind of governor" that uses the office to pressure legislative decisions.

At the present time, the decision to locate a vet school rests at least partially on a report from a Legislative Research Committee group on whether or not a school should even be funded within the state.

Carroll said that he would not pre-empt the committee's report by saying whether or not he supports such a school within the Commonwealth.

On another topic, Carroll again promised funds for a regional museum at Murray State's Wrather Hall, recently added to the National Register, on a matching basis. Carroll said he will match any funds raised locally with state money, because he feels that community pride is necessary for such a project to work.

Carroll spoke first to a group of community leaders, political candidates and well-wishers at the Colonial House Smorgasbord luncheon held Saturday noon. He told the group "I want to make you a good governor," and said "You don't have to wonder what kind of governor Julian Carroll would make, he's your governor now."

The McCracken County native said "I try to know where I've been; it's easier to see where I'm going. I've got some beautiful and beloved history in this community."

Carroll said "I am enthused to be the first governor in the 200-year history of Kentucky from the Jackson Purchase. And we can have it for four more years, but we need some help."

Murray was the second stop of the day for Carroll Saturday. He had been to Cadiz, and added stops in Mayfield and Kentucky Dam Village after his visit to Murray.

Carroll criticized his competition for governor for not filing income tax data with the press. He said that he has filed income tax returns with the press each of the 14 years he has been in public service in Frankfort, and said that those who don't "have something to hide."

"It's not enough to say you're honest, it's not enough even to be honest," Carroll said. "You have to prove you're honest."

The Kentucky governor said the number one priority of the state for the next four years should be upgrading its secondary and elementary school system, now ranked 49th in the Union. "The only way we're going to train our youngsters for the next decade is in institutions," Carroll said, adding that he was ashamed of the state's educational rating.

The native of Heath and graduate of Murray State added that this can and will be accomplished without raising taxes, but said that it should be obvious that it is impossible to increase spending and reduce revenue (taxes) at the same time, saying that "anyone who says it can be done is simply not telling the truth."

SBA To Set Up Office Locally To Aid Victims

The Small Business Administration has set up an office in Murray to accommodate flood disaster victims in Calloway County and adjacent areas.

R. B. Blankenship, district director of S. B. A. in Louisville, announced today that SBA representative Charles Pfingfelder will be in Murray on each Friday from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. to provide information on disaster loan assistance and issue applications for assistance.

The Murray Office will be located at the County Judge's Office in Murray, phone 753-2920.

These offices will be open as stated until further notice. However, the deadline for filing for assistance is May 30, 1975. All applications must be filed by this date.

Persons in these areas that were affected by the severe storm and flooding that occurred on April 3, 1975, should visit one of the S. B. A. disaster centers. Pfingfelder said persons desiring an appointment should contact the judge's office, 753-2920.

Ellington Orchestra To Perform In Murray May 1

The Duke Ellington Orchestra, conducted by Mercer Ellington, the son of Duke Ellington, will present a concert in Murray on Thursday, May 1. The concert, jointly sponsored by the music departments of Murray High School and Murray State University, will be held at Lovett Auditorium on the MSU campus at 8 p. m.

Admission to the concert will be $2.50 for students and $3 for adults. Tickets will be available at MSU, Chuck's Music Center and from Murray High band members.

The day after his father's funeral in May, 1974, Mercer Ellington took the orchestra to Bermuda as previously committed to play at IBM's Golden Circle Convention. It was a hard decision to make, and hard to fulfill, but in doing so Mercer faithfully maintained a tradition established by Duke Ellington during his five triumphant decades as a bandleader.

Since that time, Mercer has been at pains to maintain that tradition musically as well as professionally and ethically. The band's library contains all the famous compositions and arrangements, and he has steadily reactivated items in it that had become less familiar through neglect in recent years. His father was so prolific that there was inevitably a tendency to emphasize the "new one" at the expense of the past. It is now possible to see his majestic output in some kind of perspective and to restore classics to the prominence they deserve. This Mercer is systematically doing, and he is also able to spring enlightening surprises by playing compositions written by his father that were never publicly performed.

The band's personnel includes such musicians as Cootie Williams, Harold Ashby, Money Johnson and Chuck Connors, whose long association with Duke Ellington ensures authenticity of interpretation. Conducted by Mercer, the band's performances have resulted in tremendous enthusiasm at such diverse venues as the Wolf Trap in Washington, the Ravinia Festival in Illinois, Robin Hood Dell in Pennsylvania, Duke University in North Carolina, and the Steel Pier in Atlantic City. Besides such engagements, Mercer has appeared as guest conductor at the American Song Festival in Saratoga and at the All-City High School Band Contest in Los Angeles. He is also writing the biography of his famous father for publication by Houghton Mifflin of Boston.

With the Ellington Orchestra under Mercer's leadership, Duke Ellington's music will continue to be a healthy and joyous element in twentieth-century life.

Calloway County A Good Place To Have A Business

Calloway County appears to be a good place to have a business, judging from the number of them in operation in the local area.

According to the latest government figures, just released, there are more business establishments locally than in many communities of similar size.

The facts and figures are contained in a report issued by the U. S. Census Bureau covering every county in the country. It gives details on local industries, on the number of people they employ and on the size of their payrolls.

The data was compiled principally from tax reports submitted by employers last year to the Social Security Administration. For Calloway County, the survey shows a total of 470 businesses that employ one or more people. This is exclusive of self-operated enterprises that have no employees.

Of this total, 229 have from 1 to 3 persons on their payrolls, 130 have from 4 to 7 and 75 from 8 to 19.

As in most sections of the nation, small and moderate-size firms predominate in the local area. For the most part, they have been holding their own despite the competition from big business.

Some 92 percent of them have fewer than 20 employees, the figures show. Elsewhere throughout the country, the average is 84 percent.

The report shows that Calloway County's commercial establishments provided gainful employment in the year for 4,436 men and women in jobs covered by Social Security.

Not included were self-employed people, farm workers, government employees, domestic workers and members of the armed forces.

Wages and salaries for the local work force have been rising steadily, bringing payrolls to a total of $24,496,000. Two years earlier, when a similar study was made, it was $18,672,000.

Nationwide, many businesses are under a strain these days. They are caught between inflation on the one hand and recession on the other. Mounting unemployment and a general uneasiness over the state of the economy have cut deeply into their sales volume.

It has resulted in a number of shut-downs. Some 17,000 retail outlets closed their doors in the past year, according to Audits and Surveys, a marketing research organization.

A Profile Of A 4-H Family: The Charles Snyders

By FRED GILLUM
Calloway County
4-H Extension Agent

What is a 4-H leader? Who can get involved in 4-H? What are the requirements? Do I have to live on a farm? These are just a few of the questions you might ask yourself when the subject of 4-H comes up. This article is the first in a series of articles that will deal with these questions and others while giving a profile of various phases of 4-H Leadership. 4-H'ers and parents are proud of Leaders who take the time and interest to work with children.

Charlie and Barbara Snyder are new to 4-H Leadership and fairly new to Murray. The Snyders moved to Calloway County from eastern Pennsylvania in September of 1973. The Snyders have four children, a son, Michael, 18; three daughters, Sherry, 17; Susan, 14; and Sharon, 12. Barbara's mother, Mrs. Jepson, also lives with them. Susan and Sharon joined 4-H last year and were in the Speak-Up Program and Fashion Revue. Susan also attended 4-H Camp, and is looking forward to attending this year. Susan and Sharon were members of the 4-H Gals East Club.

Last fall, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder accepted the challenge of being organizational leaders for a new club so more members could participate, so the Elm Grove 4-H Club was organized. This is the Snyder's first experience with 4-H, and they are working to develop an active and progressive 4-H Club. The club recently participated in the County Variety Show where they had lots of fun. This phase of the Club program was under Sherry's leadership as she is serving as Teen Leader for the Club. Sherry did all the directing, arranging and worrying with the end result being a great act and everyone having lots of fun. The 4-H Speak-Up Program was given major importance. Charlie headed up this activity, and proudly announced three of his club members will be in the County Finals. The Snyders are also happy about the leadership given to some of the projects by other parents. Darlene Hale is in charge of the beginning sewing project and her project group has completed the tote bags and are looking forward to the Fashion Revue. Mr. J. B. Jones has also helped as Electric Project Leader.

The Snyders are excited about their club and are happy to work with children who are eager to learn. The Snyders feel "4-H is as personally rewarding to the leaders as it is rewarding to the children, especially seeing the children learn to do new things and become self-confident."

The Snyders are actively involved in the boarding-grooming business while raising and showing bull terriers and bull dogs. Elm Grove Club members include Gary Wicker, Thomas Jones, Craig Green, Peggy Guy, Keigh Roach, Jeffrey McKinney, Suequitta Woods, Valerie McKinney, Patty Robinson, Christi Hale, Lorie Hale, Jackie McKnight, Sharon Snyder, Karen Roach, Shella Lilly, Jay Young, Lisa Blackford, Tammy Conway, and Susan Snyder.

I feel as a 4-H Agent that Calloway County and the Elm Grove Community is very fortunate to have two fine people like Charlie and Barbara Snyder involved in 4-H.

The Classic Triangle: Boss + Husband = Zero

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have no one to talk to, so I am going to cry on your shoulder, if you'll let me. It's an old story. An affair that never should have started. Nine years ago I fell in love with my boss. (We were both married. I had always been a good wife and mother, and had a religious background, but I wasn't strong enough to resist this man.)

After eight years of deceiving my husband, I filed for a divorce and told my husband everything. My lover told me that he would do the same. Well, you know the rest. He never did. So now I am divorced, and I don't have my husband or my lover.

I have prayed to God to help me stop loving this married man because now I know that he will never leave his wife and family.

Will I ever get over this, Abby? I desperately need some encouragement. Maybe this letter will keep some other woman from making the same mistake that I did.

WEAK AND FOOLISH

DEAR WEAK: Yes, you will get over it, but not until you stop dwelling on the past and blaming yourself for your "foolishness" and weakness.

There is a lesson to be learned here: "Don't discard the old kettle until you're sure the new one holds water."

DEAR ABBY: Your answer to the woman who was so deeply in debt was all right as far as it went, but it didn't go far enough.

We were also in debt over our heads. Then we heard about Consumer Credit Counseling Service, which turned out to be the answer to our prayers.

It is a non-profit agency that will figure your wages and debts, and contact all your creditors who usually are willing to cut your payments down to where you can handle them. Then every payday, you pay the Consumer Credit people a set amount and THEY pay off your bills. That way you don't have any creditors hounding you, and you keep your self-respect.

Someone helped me by telling me about Consumer Credit; now it's my turn to help others.

GRATEFUL IN OREGON

DEAR GRATEFUL: Apparently, Consumer Credit Counseling has been a good friend to many because yours was one of many letters I received recommending it. Thanks for writing. I'll spread the word.

DEAR ABBY: Re the college student who wouldn't shower regularly—to the displeasure of those who had to live with him. In 1951, during basic training, my company commander told me of a soldier who had not bathed in 13 weeks. (This included two weeks of bivouac!) He asked me to see to it that that smelly soldier got a daily shower—or else.

I got five of the strongest men I could find, and we approached this unwashed soldier and told him that if he didn't get into a shower, we would get him into one. He refused, so we stripped him and carried him bodily into the shower. The others held him while I proceeded to scrub him with a G.I. scrub brush. Halfway through the bath, he pleaded for mercy and promised to finish the rest himself. He did. And after that, he was Mr. Clean.

BIRMINGHAM LAWYER

DEAR LAWYER: Now that's what I call a reasonable man under the circumstances.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20) A splendid day for clearing away recent differences which, if allowed to crystallize, could become real problems. A bit of frank talking could do the trick.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21) Judgments of the a.m. could not only be a bit "cloudy" but, if based on overoptimism, could have disappointing results. Your instincts can be trusted after 3 p.m., however.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21) A good day for looking into unusual offers — but with a watchful eye. Especially favored: writings, travel, cultural pursuits.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23) You know what you want now, so keep after it. Brook interference from no one and insist on the privacy you need to carry out your plans.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23) Avoid overtaxing yourself — a tendency now. Temper your ambitions and desires with common sense.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) A bit of news received unexpectedly could have a happy impact on your finances; may concern a sound but long-range investment proposition.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) Stellar influences excellent! If projects seem to have been going awry recently, now's the time to try again. Imagination and ingenuity stimulated.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22) New opportunities indicated in many fields — but especially where monetary interests are concerned. A splendid time for consolidating your position in this respect.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21) Don't discuss financial or domestic problems with friends or associates. Some situations are best kept "in the family" — especially now.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Indifference could spoil what should otherwise be a good day. Good opportunities available, but you'll have to seek them out. They won't be left on your doorstep.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

With your keenness for detecting flaws and your good humor, you can solve practically all of the "little" quandaries waiting to trip the unwary.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Planetary influences encourage both long-pending and new ventures. Your innate intuition and foresight should be especially keen now.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a great love of the arts and the talents required to succeed in almost any of them. Your appreciation of color and symmetry may lead you to take up painting either as a career or an avocation which, in either case, would bring success and happiness. You couple a gift for organization with love of fellowman; may, therefore, take up "causes" and, whether along political, sociological or religious lines, could be an inspiring leader in the institutions promoting them. While a great lover of tradition and heritage, you also "keep up with the times" and, if engaged in business, are most progressive in your methods. As an historian or archeologist, you would be an outstanding success. Other fields suited to your talents: education, botany, music, sculpture. Birthday of: Queen Isabella, of Spain; Immanuel Kant, renowned German philosopher; Henry Fielding, English novelist.

"Mixing Old And New Furniture" Is Lesson Given By Mrs. Werts

The Pottertown Homemakers Club held its regular meeting on Wednesday, April 9, at ten a. m. at the Triangle Inn.

Mrs. Nola Lewis, president, presided. The devotion was given by Mrs. Pattye Overcast who used as her scripture, John 3:16 and John 15:11-14 and closed with prayer. The minutes were read by Delores Zinkovich who called the roll with fifteen members and one visitor, Mrs. Mary Moore, answering with favorite things about spring.

Welcomed back as a member was Mrs. Katie Overcast who had been absent due to surgery on her eyes. A discussion on the Kentucky Homemakers Convention at Lexington June 4-6 was held. Mrs. Lewis reminded the group of the tasty meal to be held May 9 at the First United Methodist Church. A craft showing will also be held that day.

The lesson on "Mixing Old and New Furniture" was presented by Mrs. Shirley Werts.

A spring workshop at Brandon Springs in the LBL on May 24 was announced. Mrs. Louise Short led the with the All State Chorus at the state banquet.

Cancer Detector

Mrs. LaFollette read a letter from Dr. Richard Hutson, chief of staff of Murray-Calloway County Hospital Staff here that stated the doctors and the hospital staff had made plans to have installed in the hospital and in use by May the mammograph for screening and detection of breast carcinoma. Dr. Hutson also commended the Murray Woman's Club for the interest in securing this new device for early cancer detection and urged the club to influence women to make self examination regularly for cancer. He recommended regular examinations by their physicians, too. Dr. Hutson's letter brought applause from the club women because securing this device has been a main interest for the past year.

Others present at the meeting were Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. Donald Burke, Mrs. Max Beale, bookkeeper; Mrs. Tass Hopson, Mrs. Leonard Vaughn, Mrs. Charles Hoke, and Mrs. George Hart.

Fruity Questions

How much nutritional value is contained in an orange picked on a cool day in contrast to one picked in the middle of a hot spell? What is the difference, nutritionally speaking, between a red apple and a yellow banana?

These may not be hypothetical questions much longer. The Food and Drug Administration wants all food on the supermarket shelf labeled by its nutritional value, including fresh fruit.

We have a suggestion. If nutritional quality is what the FDA is after, why doesn't it recommend a daily pill that has all of the vitamins, minerals, and whatever else the FDA considers necessary for Americans to ingest?

For our part, we would rather eat a fresh strawberry warmed by the sun, or a watermelon chilled by the morning dew, without wonder if Washington approves.

Agree Or Not Interest Focusing On Lt. Governor

By S. C. Van Curon

By S. C. VAN CURON

FRANKFORT — Since most of the seasoned political observers are all but conceding the Democrat nomination for governor to Gov. Julian Carroll, the political interest is now focusing on the lieutenant governor's position where there are 11 candidates.

A fellow wordsmith, who has been known to risk a shilling or two on the ponies, jokingly described the lieutenant governor contest in the Democrat primary as a "claiming race."

His reference here is that several of the candidates are claiming they have the support of Carroll and his organization. However, Carroll's campaign Chairman, Bill Cox adamantly says that Carroll will remain neutral in the race and Carroll has stated the same position.

Carroll may have left this impression by recent appearances in Louisville and Henderson. When he was in Louisville he had some nice remarks to make about Mrs. Thelma Stovall. When he was in Henderson at a rally, he made some nice remarks about Billy Sullivan.

If he follows this pattern, he will have nice remarks to make about the other candidates when he appears in their native areas.

Two lieutenant governor candidates have openly endorsed Carroll. Mrs. Stovall and Pike County Judge Wayne Rutherford endorsed Carroll in recent weeks.

Rutherford said, "The Democrats in Kentucky are facing an important primary election May 27. Each and every office is important and the candidates should be carefully selected. The office of governor is, of course, vitally important."

"Fortunately, the decision for this office, the office of governor, is not so difficult. We have a man who can be judged on performance not on promises. He is a man of vision, imagination and courage. He has taken a strong position in favor of diversifying the coal industry through gasification and liquefaction."

"It is my pleasure to give my full and wholehearted endorsement to Julian M. Carroll for governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and to assure him that where I stand tonight is Carroll Country. And, after May 27, Kentucky will be Carroll-Rutherford country."

Rutherford left no doubt in any listener's mind where he stands.

He was a strong supporter of former Gov. Bert T. Combs when he and Carroll ran as a team against Wendell Ford for the Democrat nomination for governor.

It is almost incumbent upon a candidate for governor to speak favorably of a lieutenant governor candidate when Carroll is campaigning in that area.

Mrs. Stovall, who has served for more than 20 years in state government as state representative, treasurer, and secretary of state, has a large following and must be reckoned with in the race.

Sullivan, who has served as president pro-tem of the State Senate is also one to be reckoned with, but he and Carroll have been in opposing political camps. Sullivan joined J. R. Miller in supporting Ford for governor against Combs and Carroll.

Of course we all know the old saying that "politics makes strange bedfellows," but some of the Combs people aren't going to be too chummy with Sullivan.

Rutherford is appealing to Eastern Kentuckians to elect him so their area may have a voice in state government. He points out that both U. S. Senators are from Western Kentucky and that Carroll is from Western Kentucky. Rutherford thinks this will have a strong appeal to people of the area, particularly the strong Combs supporters.

Sullivan, an experienced legislator, appears to be conducting a campaign based on knowledge of state government and a proven record. However, he is trying to get across the idea that he is now "acting lieutenant governor" when there isn't any such office and never was. He is president pro tem of the senate.

Senator Tom Ward of Versailles is also making a strong campaign and appealing to environmentalists and ecologists and making a pitch at the coal industry.

Former Parks Commissioner Ewart Johnson also is waging a strong campaign.

Others in the Democrat primary for lieutenant governor are Atty. Gen. Ed. Hancock, who relies somewhat on a quiet and person-to-person campaign; Lyle Willis, Corbin; James O. Day, Morehead; Ronald E. Butler, Madisonville; the Rev. Charles Sweeney Sr., Louisville; and Louis S. Grace, Elizabethtown.

Letter To The Editor

Youth Temperance Week

Dear Editor:

May I write this in observance of National Youth Temperance Education Week which is Apr. 20-26. This is a time when we find Youth Temperance groups giving programs in churches, showing posters, distributing literature in various places, and doing all they can to challenge other youth to become total abstainers from harmful drugs. One of the things of greatest concern is to help youth to realize and heed dangers of social drinking. The following lesson learned by a young businessman (a true story) may help others.

William Folprecht, a young man employed by a well-known oil company, was attending his first dinner meeting with many men well-experienced in the ways of the world and some he knew to be heavy drinkers. He knew that he wasn't going to drink, for he had seen what alcohol had done for some folk. As he was struggling over how best to refuse the drink, he saw one from the office where he worked turn his glass upside down and say, "Not me, But thanks, anyway!" This gave him courage to do the same thing. Even though some workers teased them, they were happy in making the right choice.

To youth who feel they have to drink when in certain circles, remember you have just as much right not to drink as others have to their choices. It is your body and you have the right to say just what you want to put inside yourself. We need more people to turn their glasses upside down, for no abstainer ever became an alcoholic or ruined his life by drinking liquor.

Is it true today that the Christian conscience of many Americans has been lulled to sleep by the wide acceptance of social drinking? Are we keeping quiet while many tragedies occur because of social drinkers? Breathalyzer tests measure change in nervous system with least amount of alcoholic beverage. This measured difference (before others can tell) is the reason for our accidents...in many cases difference between life and death.

Let's help our youth to know the truth about how alcohol prevents the flow of oxygen into the tiny capillaries of the brain, thus killing the cells. In a time when accuracy and precision are necessary for life itself, let both youth and adults be instructed of effects of alcohol and other drugs on our bodies!

Funny Funny World

ACCIDENTS

Trooper Keith Best stationed at Knightsbridge Barracks broke his nose when he walked into a lamp post. (London Press).

A farmer in Brindisi, Italy, who was suing over an automobile accident was being questioned by the defendant's lawyer. "Did you, or did you not, at the time of the accident, when asked if you were hurt, reply that you weren't?" "I did," said the plaintiff, "but it was like this: I was driving along the road with my old horse and wagon when along comes this fellow and knocks us into the ditch. You never saw such a mess in all your life. There I was flat on my back with my legs in the air. And there was my horse on his back, with his legs in the air. This motorist gets out of his car and looks at us. He sees my horse has a broken leg. He goes back to his car, gets a gun and shoots him. Then he turns to me still lying there and says, 'Now, what about you? Are you hurt?'"

Stored Gasoline Can Be A Hazard

By F.J.L. Blasingame, M.D.

Hoarding gasoline can be hazardous.

Storing gasoline at home or in car trunks became a somewhat common practice early last year when supplies shortened and service stations operated on more limited schedules. The fear of rationing and having the supply again suddenly curtailed has encouraged the storage of extra gasoline.

In a recent article in the Journal of the American Medical Association, Duane Larson, chief surgeon at the Shrine (Galveston) Burns Institute, suggests that "parents be aware of the dangers of gasoline stored in garages." He points out that 1974 was one of the worst years at the Burns Institute because it had to treat a tremendous number of children for extensive burns they received after spilling gasoline in garages.

Dr. Larson notes that fumes from such spillage "find their way to an ignition source — often a hidden flame in the hot water heater." He noted that in the 6-month period from Dec. 1, 1973, to May 31, 1974, four of ten admissions to the Burns Institute were gasoline-related injuries — more than twice the percentage of the previous year.

Burns cause severe suffering and disability, and treatment extends over a period of months or years. Disfigurement may require repeated surgery. Children should be warned that the smell of gasoline means danger and they should be cautioned never to put gasoline in their mouths.

In the same article, Hans Grigo, technical consultant to the National Safety Council in Chicago, cautions that there is absolutely no safe way to store gasoline in the home or the car. He observes, "Gasoline vapors expand to fill the available space. This expansion can split the seams of an unvented can or plastic container and can cause vapor leakage from a vented 'safety' can. Sparks from a light switch, electrical appliance, will then trigger an explosion."

Mr. Grigo makes the shocking and impressive observation, "The explosive power of one gallon of gasoline has been compared to the explosive force of 34 sticks of dynamite."

Q. Mr. T.E. wants to know whether it is better to treat frostbite with cold or heat.

A. Avoid cold. Apply heat. Avoid pressure to the frozen part. Use coats, blankets, warm liquids, heated wet towels, or a warm bath. Frostbite requires prompt medical attention.

Q. Mrs. R.U. asks whether having sex during a mental depression makes the depression worse.

A. The sex act will not have an adverse effect on a depression. The sexual desire is usually significantly diminished during a depression. If a person is able to carry on a normal sex life, a depression, if present, must be quite mild or nonexistent.

McGinnis Wrecks Equipment, Pacers Wrecked By Nuggets

By JOHN MOSSMAN

AP Sports Writer

DENVER (AP) — George McGinnis, who normally takes out his aggressions on the opposition, even managed to wreck the equipment Sunday night.

Early in the third quarter, as McGinnis was about to lead an Indiana comeback in their American Basketball Association playoff game with Denver, the bullish forward went up for a slam dunk and bent the rim.

Play was stopped for five minutes as a replacement rim was bolted into place, and once action resumed you could have excused the Nugget players if they kept their distance from McGinnis.

McGinnis, a 6-foot-8, 240-pounder, poured in 18 points in the period to help pull the Pacers to within three points, and guard Bill Keller scored 14 in the final quarter. But the Pacers' rally fell short in a 131-128 loss to the Nuggets.

The victory gave Denver a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven Western Division final series. Game No. 2 is scheduled in Denver Tuesday night, with the series then shifting to Indianapolis for games three and four on Thursday and Friday nights.

The other ABA semifinal series opens tonight with the Spirits of St. Louis meeting the Kentucky Colonels at Louisville. The Spirits advanced with an astonishing 4-1 quarter-final victory over the defending champion New York Nets, while the Colonels defeated the Memphis Sounds, 4-1.

"McGinnis and Keller had exceptional games," Denver Coach Larry Brown said in the dressing room.

McGinnis finished with 39 points and 22 rebounds, both game-high totals, and Keller scored 22, including four three-point baskets. Rookie Billie Knight, who hit 14 of 18 free throws, added 28 points.

It was all in vain, however, as Denver's balance and steady play down the stretch paid off.

The Nuggets reeled off the first nine points of the second quarter, with Ralph Simpson getting five of them, en route to a 17-point advantage. Then Denver began committing turnovers and taking bad shots and the Pacers crept back to within seven points at intermission.

After the McGinnis-dominated third period, Indiana kept the pressure on and pulled within one point. Six straight Denver points, five of them by Mike Green, gave Denver a cushion that held up despite Keller's scoring.

Simpson, who equalled Keller with 14 points in the quarter, hit five clutch free throws in the final two minutes to help seal the triumph.

Denver hit 11 of 13 shots from the floor in the period.

Simpson led Denver with 29 points, Dave Robisch had 28 and Mack Calvin 22.

The Nuggets outshot the Pacers 56 per cent to 46 per cent, but were outrebounded 53-42 and had five more personal fouls.

Buechler Ousted In Tourney Finals

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) —

Larry Gottfried of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., top seed in the 18-and-under division, captured a trophy in the Louisville Tennis Club Invitational with a victory over Mark Buechler of Louisville.

Gottfried defeated 2nd-seeded Buechler 6-3, 6-0 in Sunday's finals of the three-day indoor junior tournament.

Stacey Bowman of Bedford, N.Y., won four matches in straight sets for a victory in the girls 18-and-under round robin. Sherry Shores, Charleston, W.Va., was second.

No. 1 seed Cary Stansbury of Tiburon, Calif., defeated unseeded Mark Alvarez of Louisville, 6-2, 6-4 for a trophy in the boys 16-and-under.

Top-seeded Roberta McCallum of Pittsburgh, Pa., won the girls 16 with a 6-0, 6-2 victory over Donna Rubin of Rye, N.Y.

In the boys 14 singles, the trophy went to unseeded Paul Van Wallegghem, Grosse Pointe, Mich., a 6-3, 6-4 victor over Scott Wallace of Columbus, Ohio, also unseeded.

Unseeded Shelley Stillman of Leucadia, Calif., defeated Suse Otto of Dayton, Ohio, also unseeded, 6-1, 6-3 to win the girls 14.

Tim Clark of Louisville, seeded No. 1, defeated unseeded Ira Schechter of Louisville 6-3, 6-4 in boys 12-and-under action.

Top-seeded Kim Medd of Montville, N.J. defeated unseeded Kathy Broad of Dayton Ohio, 6-4, 6-2 to win the girls 12.

Tiger Netters Third In Chattanooga Tournament

The Murray High tennis team placed third over the weekend at the annual Chattanooga Rotary Invitational. Paced by sophomore sensation Mel Purcell, the Tigers rolled up 13 points. Lovett High School of Atlanta, Ga., won the team title with 24 points. There were 16 teams entered in competition.

Purcell swept through competition in the number one singles and didn't have a close match until the finals.

In his first three matches, he lost only one game. But in the finals, he had to go split sets before finally downing Dale Short of Chattanooga 6-2, 4-6 and 6-4.

Also in the singles, Brent Austin got all the way to the finals before he lost in split sets.

He won all of his earlier matches in straight sets. Purcell and Austin combined in the doubles to win the championship at number one. They won every match in straight sets.

In other doubles play, Mark Homra and Kim Trevathan lost at number two in their first match as did Kevin Ray and Brad Boone at number three.

Other singles play found Kim Trevathan losing his first match at number three while at number four, Mark Homra was eliminated in the second round.

Boyd Walker, playing at five, won his first round match in straight sets before losing in straight sets in the second round.

At number six, Craig Shinnors lost in the first round in straight sets.

The girl's team did not participate in the event.

Caines, Chatham And Brewer Outstanding, Racers Win Meet

By MIKE BRANDON

Ledger & Times Sports Editor

Bill Cornell has a new recipe for winning track meets and because of that, Middle Tennessee got cooked in a dual meet Saturday night in Stewart Stadium.

"We've been working real hard, right up to the day of the meet," said the Murray State track coach.

"We had a real light workout Thursday and then just gave them Friday off."

Cornell's psychology paid off well.

His Racers turned in their best effort of the year and swamped Middle Tennessee 86-55.

There were three big, bright spots in the meet. Long jumpers Kevin Caines and Patmore Chatham broke school records and freshman Martyn Brewer qualified for the nationals in the three-mile run.

The school mark in the long jump was set only a couple of weeks ago by Chatham, a sophomore native of Antigua. That record was 23-10.

Caines, a junior from Cicero,

Ill., shattered the mark Saturday night by leaping 24-1/2.

Then came Chatham's turn.

And with one giant leap, he had his record back, soaring 24-7/8 and soaring higher on the Ohio Valley Conference's honor roll list.

"I was really delighted to see two of our long jumpers go over 24 feet," Cornell said.

"If they both jump like this in the conference meet, they should place. Right now, I'd say Chatham ranks about third and Caines probably fifth."

"They've been working real hard in the past few weeks, lifting weights and doing a lot of jumping drills. I'm sure that letting up toward the end of the week helped them out in the meet."

Brewer went out with a goal in mind.

"I knew I wanted to get at least a 13:50 in the three mile so I could qualify for the nationals," the vivacious little Englishman said.

"Sam Torres (former Murray State All-American) said he would pace me for a 13:50 three mile and so I gave it everything

I had in the last quarter and made it."

Brewer finished with a personal best of 13:49.2, which just did qualify him for the nationals.

Before that, his personal best had been a 14:08.7.

Finishing second in the event was fellow Englishman Brian Rutter who recorded a fine 14:05 and Clint Strohmeier of Paducah finished third with a 14:13.6.

Murray had six other first-place finishes in the meet.

In the 120 high hurdles, senior Gary Craft of Louisville turned in a 14.8 for a win. The 880-yard run found Dennis Mabbitt winning in 1:54.7 while Gordy Benfield was third in 1:57.4.

Then in the mile, Benfield led a Racer sweep.

Benfield won the event in 4:15.8, Rutter was second in the same time and Bob Arnet was third.

Besides the win by Chatham in the long jump, Murray picked up three more wins in field events.

Steve Ford had a personal best of 52-10 1/2 to win the shot put while teammate Don Bibbie was third with a 46-5.

In the pole vault, freshman Norman deCausin of Owensboro won in 13-5 while in the high jump, Flip Martin won in 6-9. Jim Rhizon of Murray State was second with a 6-5.

Again, Martin almost cleared the 7-0 mark but he caught the bar on the way down.

Second-place finishes on the evening went to Flip Martin with a 160-6 in the javelin, Lester Flax with a 48.7 in the 440-yard dash, Joe Patrick with a 10.0 in the 100-yard dash, Gary Craft with a 54.5 in the 440-intermediate hurdles, Lester Flax with a 22.3 in the 220-yard dash and Caines in the triple jump with a 46-9.

Earning third places were Chatham in the triple jump with a 46-9, Patrick in the 220 with a 22.5, Campbell in the 440 with a 49.3 and Chatham in the 100 with a 10.2.

The Racer 440-yard relay team composed of Patrick, Campbell, Flax and Chatham took first in 42.8.

"I really thought the meet would be closer than what it was," Cornell said.

"Dean Hayes (Middle's coach) predicted we would win the meet 83-58. I predicted Middle would win 75-66."

So much for Cornell's career in predicting.

It was only the second night track meet ever held in Stewart Stadium and Cornell was not happy with the small crowd on hand for the fine meet.

"It's a shame more people weren't here. We couldn't have ordered a more perfect night for a track meet."

"A large crowd would have really helped the kids out a lot and at least let them know that people were supporting them. I wonder how the basketball team or the football team would feel if they played Middle Tennessee and only drew a dozen or so people?" Cornell asked.

For people who would like to give a little support to the fine track program at Murray, the chance will come this Friday.

That's when Murray State will host a vastly-improved Austin Peay team, which has been picked to finish second in the league behind powerful Western Kentucky, one of the top teams in the nation.

Field events will begin at 3 p.m. in Stewart Stadium with the first track event, the 440-yard relay, set to get underway at 3:30 p.m.

Sandra Palmer Almost Made Tournament Boring

By MIKE RUBIN

AP Sports Writer

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) —

Sandra Palmer. That's about all there is to say about the 1975 $200,000 Dinah Shore Women's Circle Golf Tournament.

She almost made the world's most expensive women's golf tournament a bore. Then she added a dash of excitement at the end as she won the event she had led from start to finish.

Coolly composed through chilly winds and then warm desert breezes, the minuscule Ft. Worth, Tex., native ran off three consecutive two-under-par 70s then finally slipped up a bit when she bogeyed the last hole for a 73 Sunday but still finished with a five-under-par 283, one stroke in front of Kathy McCullen.

"I really got sort of tired," the 5-foot-1 Miss Palmer said afterwards, slumping in a chair. "And anytime you get tired you make mental mistakes like I made." She made three bogies on the final round, one more than she had in the three earlier rounds combined.

"I'm just glad it came at the end," she added.

Miss Palmer's three earlier rounds on the 6,347-yard Mission Hills course, a par-72, kept her ahead by at least a stroke from the outset and she took a three-stroke lead over Miss McCullen into the final 18 holes after her challenger charged in with a 66 Saturday.

Miss Palmer collected $32,000 for the victory and $3,000 more for leading three rounds. Miss McCullen won $21,000 for second, more than she has ever amassed in any one of her five years as a pro.

Carol Mann, Chako Higuchi of Japan and Carole Jo Skala tied for third, four strokes off the pace at one-under-par 287, each winning $10,500, and a half-dozen including early challenger Jocelyne Bourassa and Jane Ballock were tied for sixth at one over par.

Three ways better

Better Boy

After years of research, plant breeders have developed Better Boy, a tomato that is three ways better: resistant to verticillium, fusarium, and nematodes (VFN), the three main causes of blight in tomato plants.

Since it's also an F₁ Hybrid, it gives you more fruit, tastier fruit, over a longer period of time. Try it and you'll never go back to ordinary tomatoes again.

It's planting time! Plant the hybrid—plant Better Boy.

Mets End Cub String With Twinbill Sweep

Dave Kingman is giving the New York Mets the kind of consistency at the plate that they had hoped for.

And he's giving them the kind of inconsistency in the field that they'd prayed against.

Jimmy Earle Says No To New Position

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. (AP)—Jimmy Earle, basketball coach at Middle Tennessee State University, says the main reason he rejected an offer to become head coach at New Mexico State was because he likes Middle Tennessee and his present school.

"There were a number of things involved in the decision," said Earle, who turned down the offer Saturday night. "But first of all was the fact that we like MTSU and Middle Tennessee. That's where our home has always been, and where our friends and families are."

Earle, 38, said another factor was that no recruiting had been done at New Mexico State.

"The team returns four starters off a 27-5 season, but you have to think further into the future than just one season," he said.

But he added, "I came very, very close to accepting the offer."

Earle has been head coach at Middle Tennessee since 1969 and has been on the Blue Raider staff since 1965. This past year he was named Ohio Valley Conference coach of the year after the Blue Raiders won the OVC regular season title and the conference's post-season tourney.

Middle Tennessee posted a 23-5 record this season, raising Earle's career record to 94-63.

The erratic Kingman, acquired this past winter from the San Francisco Giants, won one for New York Sunday with his bat but almost lost it with his glove as the Mets took a 4-3 decision to sweep a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs.

After the Mets took an 8-6 victory in the opener, Kingman exploded his fourth home run of the young season in the second game to help New York take a 4-0 lead.

Then the thrills and spills started for Old Ironsides, reminding the fans of the Mets' eccentric teams of the early 1960s.

Relief pitcher Rick Baldwin, who was great in the seventh inning, looked awful in the ninth. He loaded the bases and then gave up a single to Jose Cardenal.

Well, it started out as a single but Kingman let it get past him for an error. As a result, three runs scored and Cardenal wound up on third with the potential tying run. At this point, Baldwin reverted to his sparkling, earlier form and nailed it down for the Mets.

Yogi Berra was as relieved as anyone after the frantic finish.

"It's a good omen," said the New York manager, "that we finally won a doubleheader at home."

The Mets hadn't won a doubleheader at home since August 31, 1973.

Giants 6, Dodgers 3
Chris Speier's two-run single capped a three-run rally in the 13th inning, leading San Francisco over Los Angeles. Reliever Geoff Zahn walked Derrel Thomas to open the inning. Bobby Murcer then singled and both runners advanced on a wild pitch.

Gary Matthews was intentionally walked to load the bases, Zahn forced in the go-ahead run with a walk to Ed Goodson and Speier singled up the middle to drive in Murcer and Matthews.

Braves 4, Padres 3
Darrell Evans' fourth home run of the season, a two-run shot following Marty Perez' leadoff double in the ninth inning, boosted Atlanta over San Diego.

The victory salvaged one game for the Braves in the three-game series with the vastly improved Padres.

Pirates 5, Cards 0
Rookie right-hander John Denny's error helped Pittsburgh score four runs in the second inning and the Pirates went on to beat St. Louis with the aid of Ken Brett's pitching and hitting. Brett, making his first start of the season, highlighted the Pittsburgh attack with his 10th career major league homer.

Brett also spaced four Cardinal singles, walked two and permitted only two baserunners to reach third before retiring after six innings in favor of Dave Giusti.

Reds 5-6, Astros 3-7
Pete Rose slammed a two-run homer — his fourth hit of the game — with two out in the bottom of the ninth inning, giving Cincinnati a dramatic victory over Houston in the opener of their doubleheader. Jose Cruz hit a bases-loaded triple and Milt May stroked a two-run single, helping Houston salvage a split.

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Jerry McGee figured this was his week before the first shot was fired in the $125,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament.

"Wednesday night, I ate oysters on the half shell and the first oyster I ate, I got a pearl," an elated McGee said Sunday after ending more than eight years of frustration on the pro golf tour by capturing his first victory.

"I told Jill (his wife) this may be the week," he said. "I didn't want to mention it before today because it might have jinxed me."

'Breds Win West Crown, Divide Pair With 'Peay

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

Ever gone swimming in a farm pond and upon leaving, discover there were water moccasins in the pond?

Sort of a scary feeling isn't it? The Murray State baseball team had the same thing happen Saturday afternoon at Clarksville as they visited Austin Peay for a doubleheader.

Going into the contest, the 'Breds were 4-0 in the spring race while the Governors were 2-2.

The only way the 'Breds could be knocked out of a trip to the Ohio Valley Conference championship series was if they lost a twinbill and then lost two more playoff games with the Governors, or at least, the team thought that.

However, they were wrong. Austin Peay won the first contest 4-0. That left the teams one game apart in the spring standings.

If the Governors won the second game, they would automatically become the spring champs, since they would have defeated Murray twice this spring.

If that would have happened, then the teams would have played a one game playoff this weekend at Clarksville for the western division title. So little did the Murray State players know how close they came to disaster.

But fortunately, the 'Breds faltered to come from behind and post a 6-3 win in the nightcap and sew up the western division title. Murray had already won the fall race and with the win in the nightcap, won the spring race, thus automatically qualifying them for the playoff series for the OVC crown.

It was simply a case of too much Dave Kautz in the opener. The Austin Peay southpaw scattered just four hits in a super pitching performance and in doing so, outthrew Murray State ace Mike Sims.

Sims, pitching well also, allowed just seven hits as he dropped his first game of the season, leaving him with an 8-1 mark for the campaign.

Kautz, only a freshman, allowed just one man past first base in the entire game. He fanned two batters and didn't issue a single pass.

The Governors scored twice in the bottom of the first.

Eddie Beam led off with a single and Steve Summer followed with a one-bagger.

With one man out, Roger Young dribbled a slow roller down the line at first and Don Walker scooped the ball and threw it to Sims. However, Sims dropped the throw and a run scored, leaving men at first and third and still just one man out.

The Governors added another run in the frame when Frank Wyatt singled.

In the fifth, Austin Peay scored another pair as Pat Dennis walked, Roger Young laced an RBI double and Bob Richert lofted a sacrifice fly.

Terry Brown had two of the four Murray State hits while John Siemanowski and Jack Perconte each added a safety.

The second game found the 'Breds scoring a run in the top of the first as Perconte walked and scored on a two-out triple to dead center by shortstop Leon Wurth.

But the lead was short-lived. In the Governors' half of the second, an RBI single by Dave Simonton and a throwing error on Brown gave Austin Peay two runs and a 2-1 lead.

Then in the fourth, the 'Breds went to work and actually sewed up the western division crown.

Wurth led off with a walk, Brown singled and both moved up as Walker laid down a beautiful sacrifice bunt.

Designated hitter Don Derrington ripped a single to right to send in Wurth and Bob Mantooth picked up an RBI to put Murray ahead 3-2 as he hit into a fielder's choice at second.

Murray had a big inning going in the fifth.

With one out, Perconte laced a single into right and Siemanowski reached on a walk.

Wurth hit a shot up the middle but the throw to second was wild and went into rightfield, sending in another run and leaving the runners on first and third.

The second run of the frame scored when Siemanowski came in on a passed ball.

Then Wurth and Brown both walked and suddenly, the bases were full with just one out and the 'Breds holding a 5-2 lead.

Derrington then lofted a fly to shallow left for the second out. Wurth, on third base, tagged up but the throw from leftfielder Steve Summer was right on the money and Wurth was tagged out to end the what-could-have-been big inning.

Inspired somewhat by the fine fielding play by Summer, the Governors hopped on Thoroughbred southpaw for another run in the fifth, taking advantage of a walk and two singles.

Leading just 5-3 going into the last frame, the 'Breds came up with a big insurance run as Wurth walked, stole second and scored on Walkers' line drive double down the leftfield line.

Oliver went all the way on the mound and raised his mark for the season to 8-1.

He fanned three men and walked the same number.

"I had a bad crick in my neck," the senior southpaw from Hazel said.

"I wasn't able to bend all the way down on my delivery and I had trouble getting the ball down."

Murray had several super fielding plays during the two games.

One occasion found Austin Peay with runners on at second and third. A major league liner to the power alley in right was all but gone when Siemanowski, with his back to the infield, ran up against the wall, leaped and made a brilliant backhand stab.

He got a huge ovation from both Murray and Austin Peay fans. And incidentally, the 'Breds had more fans at the park than the Governors as a fine turnout made the trip to Clarksville.

David Hughes also made a super play in centerfield as he caught up with a ball that seemingly had plugged the gap. Hughes made a backhand stab and saved a couple of runs with his catch.

The 'Breds, ranked 12th in the nation in major colleges, are now 35-6 on the season and will not play again until Thursday. A Jayvee game, which had been scheduled for Tuesday with Three Rivers College, has been postponed.

Lambuth, coached by former Murray State assistant and major leaguer Hawk Taylor, will carry a 16-14 mark into the 3 p. m. contest with the 'Breds Thursday at Reagan Field.

I GOT IT — Murray State shortstop Leon Wurth hauls in a pop fly against Austin Peay Saturday. Backing up on the play is leftfielder Richie "Chi-Chi" White.

Chris Evert Beats King To Capture World Series

By DAN McDONALD
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Chris Evert says she would like more tournaments like this past weekend's $100,000 World Series of Women's Tennis to which only four players were invited.

But, then why not? She pocketed the $50,000 first prize — the largest sum ever in women's tennis — after downing a determined and angry Billie Jean King 4-6, 6-3, 7-6 Sunday before a national television audience.

Miss Evert, the year's leading money winner with $183,450, said, however, she did not want to win just for the money. "The $25,000 second-place prize would have been good," she said.

In the consolation match, Evonne Goolagong of Australia picked up $15,000 by beating Russia's Olga Morozova 2-6, 6-3, 6-3. Miss Morozova's $10,000 prize will go to the Russian Tennis Federation as usual.

The scene was set for a true championship match Sunday after Miss Evert trounced Miss Morozova 6-4, 6-0 Saturday and Ms. King blasted Miss Goolagong 6-1, 6-3. Each match lasted about an hour.

Sunday, Miss Evert and Ms. King traded shots for over two hours before Miss Evert took the match with a 5-2 tiebreaker in the final set.

The New York Yankees will hold their oldtimers' day at Shea Stadium on Saturday, Aug. 2.

Modest Elvin Hayes Scores 46 As Bullets Edge Past Braves

By The Associated Press
Modesty may have caused Elvin Hayes of the Washington Bullets to say, "We don't like to rely on one player."

But the fact remains that the Bullets continually need a lot of points from Hayes to win.

They got them Sunday.

Hayes poured in 46 points, his career high in National Basketball Association playoff competition, and the Bullets edged the Buffalo Braves 97-93 for a 3-2 lead in their best-of-seven Eastern Conference semifinal series.

It was the 20th straight time in which Hayes had scored 30 or more points that the Bullets had won.

In a Western Conference semifinal game Sunday, the Chicago Bulls routed the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 104-77 for a 3-2 advantage in their best-of-seven series.

In the other semifinals, Boston leads Houston 2-1 in the East following the Rockets' 117-102 triumph Saturday and Golden State and Seattle are tied 2-2 in the West after the Super-Sonics' 111-94 victory Saturday.

The sizzling Hayes connected on 19 of 26 field goal attempts and added eight free throws in outscoring Buffalo's Bob McAdoo, who had wrecked the Bullets with 50 points in Game 4. McAdoo, the league's scoring champion for the second consecutive year, collected 34 points in Sunday's nationally televised game.

Hayes, however, denied he was in a personal battle with McAdoo. "I don't believe in personal duels," Hayes said. "I do whatever it takes to win. We've won all year with the five starters and the bench. We don't like to rely on one player."

Nevertheless, it was proven throughout the season and again is being proven in the playoffs that Washington needs big production from Hayes. In the previous two games that the Bullets beat Buffalo in the playoffs, he scored 34 and 30 points. In the two losses, he got only 20 and 16 points.

Wes Unseld clinched the Bullets' victory by grabbing one of Hayes' few missed shots and putting it in with five seconds remaining for a 96-93 lead. Unseld was fouled on the shot and completed a three-point play.

The teams meet in Game 6 Wednesday night at Buffalo.

Bulls 104, Kings 77

Chicago parlayed Bob Love's 30 points and an air-tight defense in crushing the error-prone, poor-shooting Kings in the second half of the league's nationally televised doubleheader. The Bulls held Nate Archibald, the Kings' high-scoring guard, to 13 points, well below his average. Archibald hit only four of 16 shots from the floor.

"We missed simple shots," complained Kings' Coach Phil Johnson, who indicated he would change his starting lineup for Game 6 at Kansas City Wednesday night. "Larry McNeill is not helping defensively."

The Boston-Houston series resumes Tuesday night at Houston in a nationally televised game and Golden State entertains Seattle Tuesday night in the fifth game of their series.

Track Record

LIVONIA, Mich. (AP) — A track record trifecta payoff was set Sunday at Detroit Race Course in the 10th race when the 97-1 longshot Double Cousin finished third and set up a $30,453 return.

Two unidentified bettors held the giant payoff tickets. The old trifecta record of $21,853 was set August 31, 1972.

Wins Title

TORONTO (AP) — Donna Hennyey of Toronto won the women's individual title for the fifth time in seven years at an international invitational fencing tournament Sunday.

Miss Hennyey beat Aggie Sussel of Cleveland in the eight-fencer final. Louise LeBlanc of Ottawa, the defending champion, was third.

Racer Tennis Team Winless In OVC, Lose Two Over Weekend

By ROSS BOLING

The Murray State Racer tennis team suffered through yet another disastrous weekend as they dropped two more conference matches to Tennessee Tech and East Tennessee by identical 7-2 scores. The losses lowered their overall record to 3-14 and brought their conference mark to a miserable 0-6. Unless the Racers can pull off what would have to be considered a cataclysmic upset of league leading Western tomorrow in Bowling Green, they will have gone winless in OVC play for the first time in the history of Murray State tennis.

If nothing else, the weekend marked a sort of becoming for number four singles player Del Purcell. Purcell was the only Racer to win both of his singles matches, beating Tech's David Smiley 4-6 6-3 6-4 and East Tennessee's Pete Zanus 7-5 6-3.

For most of his tennis career, Purcell has experienced the considerable frustration of playing in the shadow of his nationally-ranked younger brother Mel, and to a lesser extent, his Coach and father, Bennie. Everybody knew Mel and Bennie but somehow Del was always either obscured or recognized only as "Mel Purcell's brother."

It's not that Del was ever lacking in accomplishments. He teamed up with Mel to win the Kentucky State High School doubles championship, two years running which made them the first non-Louisville team to win a championship in singles or doubles since 1951.

But in singles he was generally considered a "dumb" player, a player who admittedly possessed a competent arsenal of strokes but who never fully put them to effective use. He went for too many outright winners and was frequently too impatient to play intelligent, percentage tennis.

That has all changed. Del is rapidly becoming known as one of Murray's "smartest" players. He has finally learned when to be flamboyant and when to play it cool and therein lies the essential difference between a winner and a loser, between the Del Purcell of old and the Del Purcell of right now.

This difference was lucidly illustrated in his match against Zanus. Trailing 3-5 in the first set, he fought back to win the next four games, mainly by virtue of several well-controlled passing shots, and capture the set 7-5. From that point on, it was purely academic.

"I played terrible until I got behind 5-3 in that first set. After that I was phenomenal. I couldn't believe it," said Purcell with a little well-deserved cockiness.

Apparently everyone had better start believing it, though. Purcell has now won six of his last seven matches and owns a respectable 10-7 record in singles. Although his conference record is only an adequate 3-3, after his performance this weekend he must be considered a definite contender for the OVC crown at number four singles.

Number one Mike Owen had a rather rough weekend of it. Playing with a badly cracked racket and bothered by a sore knee, he was upended by Tech's David Brent 3-6 6-3 and had to stave off two match points before struggling past upstaged Mike Thompson of East Tennessee 6-3 5-7 7-6.

Number two Ross Boling accounted for Murray's only other victory against Tech, beating Steve Behrman 6-3 3-6 7-6 in a match that lasted nearly three hours but bowed to ESTU's Jeff Jadon 6-2 7-5 after having two points for the second set.

Tom Lie played well in spots but dropped both of his number three singles matches. He lost to Tech's Mark Heinrich 6-3 6-4 and played for two hours - plus before eventually bowing to East Tennessee's Rob Wallie 4-6 7-5 6-2.

Number five Craig Mangold continued taking it on the chin as he dropped a 6-2 6-3 decision to Tech's Parthaban Parthananian and lost a tough three-setter to his former doubles partner in Detroit, ESTU's Kevin Bolar, 6-3 5-7 6-4.

Jim Lukeman didn't fare any better, a number six. He lost to Tech's Lynard Allen 6-4 6-0 and East's Boo Harrison 6-2 6-2.

To add insult to their already sizable injury, the Racers failed to win a single doubles match over the weekend.

Boling and Owen lost to Tech's Behrman and Brent 6-4 6-2 and to East Tennessee's Wallie and Harrison 6-7 6-2 7-5 after squandering numerous chances to win the third set.

The number two pair, Lie and Purcell, lost to Tech's Heinrich and Smiley 6-3 6-4 and ETSU's Jadon and Bolar 7-5 6-0. Mangold and Lukeman offered little resistance in bowing to Tech's Parthananian and Allen 6-2 6-2 and ETSU's Thompson and Zanus 6-3 6-2.

Royals' Five-Man Rotation Has Four Men And It's Going Well

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

The Kansas City Royals are going so good these days their five-man starting rotation consists of only four pitchers.

The Royals made it five victories in a row and nine out of 10 by trimming the Texas Rangers 2-0 Sunday behind the six-hit hurling of Al Fitzmorris. But their lead in the American League's West Division was cut to 1½ games when the Oakland A's swept a doubleheader from the Minnesota Twins 4-1 and 5-1.

"We're winning with good pitching and that's 80 per cent of the game," said Manager Jack McKeon. "We're not tearing the cover off the ball. We're just playing solid, consistent, aggressive baseball."

"Nobody can match our five starters. They might match us 1 and 2, but not five-deep."

The KC starters are Steve Busby, Paul Splittorff, Fitzmorris, Nelson Briles and Bruce Dal Canton ... who hasn't thrown a pitch this season.

A's 4-5, Twins 1-1

Dave Hamilton, hustled into action when starter Mike Norris hurt his elbow in the first inning, combined with Jim Todd on a seven-hitter and pitched Oakland to a doubleheader sweep. Glenn Abbott stopped the Twins with a six-hitter in the opener.

The A's scored twice against rookie Jim Hughes in the first inning of the nightcap on a walk and singles by Bert Campaneris, Sal Bando and Joe Rudi. They got two more runs in the sixth on singles by Rudi and Claudell Washington, two walks and a sacrifice fly.

In the first game, the A's took advantage of three Minnesota errors to score two unearned runs. Meanwhile, Abbott held the Twins scoreless until Bob Darwin homered leading off the ninth. Loser Bert Blyleven allowed only four hits and struck out 12.

Angels 8, White Sox 4

Bruce Bochte and Dave Chalk drove in three runs apiece, helping unbeaten Nolan Ryan post his fourth victory. Ryan allowed five hits, including home runs by Ken Henderson and Jorge Orta, but walked nine and struck out only six.

The Angels jumped on Claude Osteen for two runs in the first inning on Tommy Harper's single, Bochte's triple and a double by Chalk. They added a run in the fourth on a walk, a single by Elie Rodriguez and a squeeze bunt single by Jerry Remy. California wrapped it up with four runs in the seventh, with Bochte providing a two-run single.

Red Sox 10, Orioles 2

Luis Tiant pitched a four-hitter, including home runs by Bobby Grich and Lee May, and the Red Sox capitalized on Mike Torrez' wildness. Torrez gave up five hits, walked eight, threw two wild pitches and batted home a run-before giving way to Wayne Garland in the fourth. He was charged with seven runs.

Bernie Carbo and rookie Jim

Rice had two hits each for the Red Sox. Carbo scored three runs and drove in one as the leadoff batter, starting a three-run rally in the first inning with a walk. Rice had two RBI with a single in the first and another single as the Red Sox scored three more runs in the fourth.

Indians 7, Brewers 4

Home runs by Tom McCraw and Rico Carty and Frank Duffy's two-run single powered Cleveland's victory. An error and a wild pitch by loser Jim Slaton and a passed ball by catcher Charlie Moore helped the Indians score five times in the second inning.

John Ellis reached on Slaton's error, Charlie Spikes walked and both runners moved up on the passed ball. Ellis scored on Slaton's wild pitch and Spikes moved to third. One out later, Jack Brohamer walked and stole second and then Duffy singled to center, scoring Spikes and Brohamer. Slaton retired another batter before McCraw hit his first home run of the season.

Yankees 7, Tigers 1

New York erupted for six runs against rookie Vern Riffe in the seventh inning, two on Ed Herrmann's tie-breaking pinch double and three on a homer by Ron Blomberg, and defeated Detroit behind Rudy May's three-hit pitching. Bobby Bonds homered for the Yankees' first run.

Two Economics Courses To Be Offered, Summer

Two short-term courses in economics are being offered this summer by the recently established Center for Economic Education at Murray State University in an effort to broaden the knowledge and enhance the instructional capability of teachers in the region.

Dr. Dan Harrison, director of the center, said each of the courses carries three semester hours of either graduate or advanced undergraduate credit. He listed them as follows:

—June 9-18, Economics 500, Survey of Economic Principles, a course designed to give the student a better understanding of basic principles and problems.

—June 19-28, Economics 595, The Economics of Today, a course designed to enlighten the student about other economic systems and to provide a framework for comparing alternative systems.

Each of the classes will meet five hours a day for a period of nine days, according to Harrison. Students registering for the courses will pay the standard tuition fees for the university.

The Center for Economic Education, established through the Department of Economics on the campus, is intended to serve as a training and resource center for elementary and secondary schools and teachers in the region, according to Harrison.

He said the summer program

Shrinking Jaw Blamed For 'Bad Bite' Features

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — The human jaw is getting smaller, its chin is receding and its teeth are getting more crooked, says a University of Michigan scientist.

"Our whole facial structure below the eyes is falling to pieces," says Dr. James E. Harris, chairman of the department of orthodontics. "When we see a person with perfect teeth, it's so rare that we take pictures."

Harris has spent the past decade studying the teeth of ancient and present day Nubians, a genetically distinct tribe who lived along the banks of the Nile River for thousands of years.

Harris and his colleagues studied the Nubians, who exhibit the facial features of Caucasians and the bone structure of black Africans, because skeletal remains dating back to 200-1500 A.D. were available.

He began his study to determine why so many people — particularly Americans — suffer from malocclusion, or "bad bite."

The scientists compared the dental and skeletal records of present day Nubians with those of their ancestors.

Harris found that the average Nubian's teeth are not nearly as crooked as the average American's. The reason may be the greater mix of racial groups in America, he said.

"You take people with long heads, round heads, square heads and you throw them all together, you're asking for trouble. You're asking for a harmonious face from a series of genes that are not programmed to produce a harmonious result.

"It's remarkable we look like humans," he said.

Harris said the primary reason humans regularly suffer from malocclusion is their jaw is growing smaller with the teeth getting smaller, too, but at a far slower rate.

Thus, teeth crowd into an undersized jawbone and the consequences are jammed, crooked teeth.

Normally, genetic changes harmful to a species — like too-small jaws — are not reproduced because the species usually does not survive to breed.

But with civilization and softer foods, children with malocclusions have survived and passed on defective genes to their children.

"The cranio-facial system is the only system in the body that can completely collapse and you can still reproduce," said Harris.

Harris foresees a gradual worsening of human teeth over the next several thousand years.

"There is no reason to believe the face is not going to continue to get worse and worse," he said. "We will have more and more poorly formed teeth, and a consistently worse bite."

Dr. Ben Humphreys To Receive Training Grant

KANSAS CITY, MO.—Dr. Benjamin C. Humphrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Humphrey of Murray, was one of eighteen doctors named as recipients of $1,200 awards from the American Academy of Family Physicians to help finance their graduate training in family practice.

The AAFP, headquartered in Kansas City, is the national association of family doctors and the nation's second largest national medical organization. These awards, given annually by the Academy since 1952 to aid young physicians planning careers as family doctors, are made possible by a grant from Mead Johnson Laboratories, Evansville, Ind.

Dr. Humphrey currently is a resident in family practice at Grant Hospital, Columbus, Ohio. He is a 1965 graduate of Murray High School, and received his M.D. degree in 1973 from the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

Blanton, Wallace To Lead Group For Waterway Funding

NASHVILLE (AP)—Govs. Ray Blanton of Tennessee and George Wallace of Alabama will lead a delegation to Washington next Monday to urge funding for continued construction of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway.

They will be joined in Washington by approximately 35 congressmen from Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Mississippi and Tennessee.

The delegation will appear before the House Appropriations Public Works subcommittee chaired by Rep. Joe L. Evins, D-Tenn.

Wallace is chairman of the waterway development authority, a five state compact formed to promote the project. Blanton is chairman of the Tennessee membership.

Recital Scheduled At MSU Wednesday

Edward R. Riddick of Maury City, Tenn., a senior music education major at Murray State University, will present a senior piano recital on the campus Wednesday evening, April 30.

Scheduled at 8:15 p. m. in the Recital Hall Annex of the Price Doyle Fine Arts Building, his program will include "Sonata for Piano" by Norman Lloyd, Preludes, "The Dancers of Delphes" and "What the West Wind Saw" both by Debussy, and "Etudes Op. 10, No. 6 and Op. 25, No. 11" both by Chopin.

Riddick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Riddick of Maury City and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity on the campus.

The specialty of family practice was created in 1969 to train doctors to provide continuing comprehensive health care to entire families. Specialists in family practice must complete a 3-year residency training course following medical school. There are now 233 of these approved residency programs in operation across the United States.

Announcement of the 18 winners was made at the AAFP's annual State Officers' Conference April 19-20 in Kansas City.

David McKee Is Honored

David McKee, a senior at the University of Kentucky, College of Medicine, Lexington, was recently honored with the Francis M. Massie Department of Surgery Award for Excellence in Surgery.

The award was named for a Lexington surgeon, Francis M. Massie, who was instrumental in the establishment of the medical school at UK and in the development of its department of surgery.

David McKee

The presentation was made by chairman of the department of surgery, Ward O. Griffen, Jr., M. D., at the medical school's annual awards day program in Lexington. McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aude McKee, formerly of Murray, now of Valley Station, is married to the former Jeanie Diuguid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Diuguid, 803 Sharpe, Murray. Tornado Damage Estimated At $1.3 Million In Jackson, Tenn.

JACKSON, Tenn. (AP) — Civil defense officials have estimated damage at $1.3 million in the second tornado to hit Jackson within a month.

Residents and volunteers spent Sunday clearing streets and repairing damage left by the storm that struck late Friday night, killing one woman and injuring 54 persons.

The tornado left a path of destruction an eighth of a mile wide and 15 miles long on a northeasterly path about 200 yards north of the path taken March 22 by the first tornado in Jackson's history. The second storm touched the ground at least three times.

U.S. Sen. William Brock, R-Tenn., toured the area Saturday and told city officials he will help obtain federal aid for persons who lost their homes or suffered damages.

Brock met Saturday in Jackson with Mayor Robert Conger and Ron Collins, Civil Defense coordinator for West Tennessee.

Gov. Ray Blanton viewed the area by air Saturday when he flew in for the dedication of the Muse Park. Blanton offered the assistance of state agencies. U.S. Rep. Ed Jones, D-Tenn. made an on-the-ground inspection Saturday.

Capt. Jerry Lee Johnson of the Jackson Police Department said crews worked Sunday clearing streets and restoring power and telephone service. He said officials of Parkway Mobile Home Park and Sadler Mobile Home Park had hired private security guards to protect property. Most of the injuries reported to Jackson-Madison County Hospital occurred at the mobile home parks.

Police said Augusta Smith, 58, died when wind caved in the roof of her apartment at Parkway East, a public housing project in east Jackson.

Eight other persons injured in the disaster were hospitalized after treatment in the emergency room. A spokesman at the hospital said all the injured had been released Sunday.

Officials said 40 families will need temporary housing for a period of from three to six months.

Collins said the tornado demolished three homes, 37 trailers, two apartment buildings and the Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church in east Jackson.

Heavy to moderate damage was sustained by nine homes, five trailers, six businesses and six apartment buildings. Light damage occurred at 147 homes, seven businesses and 18 apartment buildings.
